Normal service will resume as soon as possible...?

Easter is over – what do we do now? Do we slip back into our regular routine daily lives? It is like Christmas, where we often have such a busy build-up to the date, and then when it is over, everything goes back to “normal” and we slip back into our old ways.

Easter, like Christmas, is a season of celebration. The question is, are we moved to press on with the Lord, or do we just look forward to sunshine and summer. There is one particular Sunday that in many Anglican churches, is called ‘Stir Up Sunday’.

That is exactly what Easter should be for us. A time to stir ourselves up. A time to rededicate our lives to Jesus, and to press on for a closer relationship with Him.

God does not call us to follow Jesus, and then simply be Sunday Christians. We are reminded in the book of Hebrews that Jesus has opened us for us a new and living way into God’s presence. That is for every day.

We are reminded to draw near to God with a sincere heart in full assurance of faith. That is about a daily relationship. It is so important not to lose sight of what Jesus has done for you and for me. He died that we may have our sins forgiven, and the way into the presence of God and our relationship with Him renewed. He died so that we may have that privilege - a daily walk with the Lord.

We are reminded to hold fast to what we have believed. It so easy for us to slip into a casual relationship with the Lord. Let's hold fast to what we have received and believed. It is so easy to get knocked about by all that is going on in the world round about us today, and so lose sight of what God has done for us, and to forget our daily walk with Him.

It is important that we encourage one another – it is so easy to condemn and moan about our fellow believers.....our brothers and sisters in Christ. Scripture reminds us – there is one body, one church, one Lord.

We are challenged to spur one another on to love and good deeds.

Four simple lines to keep before us each day.....

"Do not wear yourself out to get rich;
have the wisdom to show restraint.
Cast but a glance at riches, and they are gone,
for they will surely sprout wings and fly off to the sky like an eagle."
Proverbs 23:4-5
